

WOMEN'S HEALTH & BIRTH CENTER

SASSY SEVENTEEN!

....can you believe 17 years of amazing births!! Our busy practice is providing services to 125 expectant families plus numerous new moms and teens. We are also now seeing families from the Santa Rosa Community Health Centers (formally Southwest Community Clinic) to help them with their new babies and breastfeeding. Many of our staff have begun as receptionist and doulas then moved on to being educators, administrators, nurses and midwives. We are very proud of the empowerment that happens here for birth staff and mothers. We have even had one of our babies work for us!!

Thank you for 17 years of support.

Better Beginnings up date....

WOW... Better Beginnings is on the move! BB is the nonprofit that supports much of what we do here at the Birth Center. Go to www.betterbeginningsforbabies.org and you can see the mission statement.

May 7th is the reception and preview for BABIES the movie at the Rialto Cinemas Lakeside on Summerfield Rd. at 6:30 PM. This fundraiser will help families in labor and after delivery. A BIG thank you to the Rialto for sponsoring the reception. Both BB and the California Parenting Institute will be benefiting from the sales of tickets. Call us ASAP if you want to go!

Save the Date

7/10/2010

Join us for our 17th Birthday!!

A few more things to come...

May 8th is the Human Race! Maya our receptionist and Rosanne our Director are running/walking for Better Beginnings. If you want to sponsor them call 539-1544.

For more information go to <http://www.humanracenow.org/race.html>

Walk in the Rose Parade with us! Bikes Babies and Bellies on May 15th. For more information call the WHBC!

We Need Your Help With....

Newborn clothing

Gardening help

Better Beginnings- committee members and board members

Birthday Party Planners

Rummage Sale items- as well as volunteers